(a) Protection of your identity and confidentiality

Subject to compliance with legal requirements, upon receiving a report under this Policy, JCurve Solutions will not, nor will any supervisor, manager or Protected Disclosure Officer, disclose any particulars that would suggest or reveal your identity as a whistleblower, without first obtaining your consent.

Any disclosure that you consent to will be disclosed on a strictly confidential basis. However, the Protected Disclosure Officer is able to disclose the complaint without your consent to NSW Police, ACNC, ASIC, APRA or the Australian Federal Police.

(b) Protection of files and records

All files and records created from an investigation will be retained under strict security and unauthorised release of information to someone not involved in the investigation (other than senior managers or directors who need to know to take appropriate action, or for corporate governance purposes) without your consent as a whistleblower will be a breach of this policy.

Whistleblowers are assured that a release of information in breach of this policy will be regarded as a serious matter and will be dealt with under the Complaints and Grievance Policy.

(c) Fairness

Any JCurve Solutions employee or volunteer who is subjected to detrimental treatment as a result of making a report in good faith under this policy should inform a Protected Disclosure Officer immediately. If the matter is not remedied, it should be raised with the Chairman of JCurve Solutions (Bruce Hatchman).

Detrimental treatment includes dismissal, demotion, harassment, discrimination, disciplinary action, bias, threats or other unfavourable treatment connected with making a report.

The Corporations Act 2001 (Cwlth) also gives special protection to disclosures about breaches of that Act, as long as certain conditions are met.
